ABOUT ARMENIA

Armenia is one of the most ancient countries of the world. It is a small country that connects Europe to Asia. Armenia is a modern country with nice and talented people, ancient history, thousands of historical monuments, rich culture, traditional hospitality, delicious and healthy food, beautiful nature, and safe environment.

The capital city of Armenia is Yerevan. Yerevan has a history of thousands of years. This year Yerevan celebrates its 2800th anniversary, a great event for all Armenians happily residing in one of the oldest cities in the world. Yerevan is called "The pink city" because of the color of the stone used for buildings.

Armenia was the first country in the world that adopted Christianity as a state religion. Religious monuments of Christianity can be seen everywhere throughout Armenia. You can get to the one of the most magnificent creations of medieval Armenian architecture, Tatev monastery, by a ropeway, which happens to be the longest in the world

Lake Sevan is located so high up in the mountains, that when you sit on the bank it seems that the water surface is about to touch the sky. This amazing lake is the largest and possibly the most beautiful in the Caucasus. The lake, which locals call 'the Armenian Sea,' is surrounded by mountains

Armenian cuisine is one of the oldest in Europe and the oldest in the South Caucasus. The dishes here are diverse and delicious thanks to the use of lots of spices, herbs, and wild flowers. In Armenia, and especially in Yerevan, there are many traditional restaurants offering a great choice of local dishes. Armenia is the country where the tastiest and juiciest fruits are grown. Some of them are typically Armenian fruits, others are met in other countries as well, though they'll probably be different in taste depending on the climate.
